“ My sincere sympathy to Rose's family. Your mother was one in a million. I drove Carmel to class every day in our Junior and Senior year at Lake Catholic HS, and got to see Rose and Jerry every day. I always felt safe in their home on Garfield Rd. In fact, I think I was Jerry's favorite of Carmel's friends. They always laid out the red carpet for me. I enjoyed many a tasty Italian sandwich and home baked Italian cookies in that home. Rose was a sweet loving woman, with a large side of spice! I felt like I could trust her like a second mother. I saw Rose in 2016 when I last visited Cleveland. We ate and laughed as we always had. So glad I made that visit. Today Rose is walking on streets of gold in the presence of our Savior. Rest in Peace sweet Rose, and thank you for the wonderful memories.

“ Over 40 years ago Rose walked into the office of Birthright Lake, Inc. to become one of the most committed supporters of the women and babies of Lake Country that we have! Her LOVE showed through her every action, from coming into the office to sort donated clothes, to selling tickets for the numerous fundraisers, to emotionally supporting those that lead the organization, especially her dear friend Sandy Cody, and to being on the Advisory Board to help guide the organization to where it is today. Birthright Lake, Inc. sends our LOVE and prayers for peace to Rose as she "meets Jesus" and to her family for sharing this beautiful woman with us. God bless you, Rose. Thank you for all you have done. We will continue your legacy by living in LOVE and we will miss you!!

“ The secret is out. Now Rose knows that I added water to the sauce for the cavatelli. Thank you Rose for all the years working the cavatelli booth at the church festival. May you rest from your work in the loving arms of Our Lord Jesus Christ. Peace be with you. Jackie McDonald.
