“ One of the funniest times I remember was when the four of us were visiting a cousin in Palm Springs. We stayed at a resort for a week. About mid week, I asked Ross are you enjoying your time away from home? He said I miss home! I said are you kidding? He replied, no, I'm ready to go home. We had a lot of great times when together and we will miss that. Rest In Peace dear brother and brother in law. We love you!

“ I worked with Ross at the Euclid Drive Systems plant. He was dependable, capable, knowledgeable and fun to work around. His smile and laugh were infectious and he was an important part of the Reliance culture.

Rest in peace, Ross

“ My favorite memories of my Uncle Ross were on the Christmas Eve's we all spent together. We would all gather around the table to play Skit Skat together, and every chance he would he would hide cards in his socks or up his sleeve. He'd tell us he wasn't cheating, but it was miraculous how cards kept appearing when he should've been out of the game. I tell my class about this tradition and Uncle Ross every year when we write about great family traditions. I'll miss him. Love you, Uncle Ross.
