“ Ryan, I will miss you. I still talk about some of our adventures in college. I will remember our shared love of the Browns and us accidentally running into each other and my brother and we all had the same Browns jersey on. My prayers are going out for you and your entire family.

“ I had the honor of being one of Ryan's teachers at Blessed Sacrament. He was a pleasure to teach. He was extremely bright, had a keen sense of humor, was liked and respected by his fellow students and teachers, and seemed to always have a smile on his face and a quip at the ready. He was one of the students I will always remember. Prayers go out to his family and friends.

“ Ryan was a classmate in our OD graduate program. Ryan was an amazing person and added to our tightknit cohort. He was open, curious and made our group and work fun with his sense of humor. I remember sitting next to Ryan in class when he received word that Cassie was going into labor and needed to leave because Emery was on her way. We all felt so excited in that moment that he was about to become a dad. We will miss you, Ryan.

What a special time that was. He was an amazing dad as much as he was an amazing partner and friend. Thank you for sharing that, Jennifer.
