“ When Ryan was about 3 or 4 he was afraid of worms. Dave was planting our garden and talked him into holding one. It tickled his hand so he decided to stick it in his pocket and take it home. After that his pockets had to be checked before going into the laundry. We were so blessed to have shared in Ryan's life, the world is a brighter place because of his love. Praying for comfort for all those who love and miss him.
