“ So many questions answered now Brother. We will visit once again and perhaps this time we can stand shoulder to shoulder peacefully basked in the warm and loving sunlight that only complete universal knowledge can bring.

No more doubt, uncertainty or pain this life can offer. I will miss you only until then Ryan. Call on Danny, you can trust his guidance in the afterlife as you could in this life Brother. God bless all that you loved and who had the opportunity to love you back. Thank you for all the laughter Ryan, till then.....

“ I met Ryan, when he started hanging around the laundryomat when my foster brother Donald Rose, ran it. Then he joined my 4-H group, and starting hanging around my foster home, with my foster dad Henry Rose. He was always playing Marble Madness on the computer. Once I left, I lost track of everyone, but thanks to Facebook I was able to reconnect with some of them. I was surprised to read about him, in this manner. R.I.P. Ryan, you will definitely be missed by all who knew him.

“ Ryan was so kind. Years ago my desktop computer got a virus. Ryan reached out to me after I had posted on facebook. He sat on the phone with me multiple times that day and for hours while he guided me through wiping my hard drive clean and getting it back up and running. My heart goes out to his family and everyone that knew him. Rest in peace my friend..

“ Ryan was my first boyfriend in junior high, he was funny all the time and could argue an issue till you just wanted to strangle him then he'd just smile at you say something silly and the world would be right again. My thoughts and prayers are with his wife, family and friends.

All I can remember is the way he would always correct me. My grammar my spelling my way of life. He was a good teacher and a great friend. The closest thing I had to a big brother. He is already truly missed.

I went to high school with him and a few years ago went to a party at his house. Although I hadn't talked to him in a few years, he was a very unique person and seemed to be extremely smart. I am so sorry to hear that he is gone at such a young age. Prayers for his family and friends.
