“ I remember going for tea with Aunt Sally several times. I was a young mom with three small girls. She taught me to laugh at the little things and was so encouraging. We talked about books and shared our faith together.

Aunt Sally always made the fanciest Christmas cookies which we all loved. I especially enjoyed her Poppyseed Potica at our family gathering.

She was such an expert at knitting and making things. She made me a blanket when one of my girls were born that I treasure and have rocked my grand babies in.

Aunt Sally was a beautiful lady, I loved her smile, I was blessed to have known her
