

Scott "Papa" Crow

December 16, 1954 - February 3, 2018

Scott "Papa" Crow, 63 of Mentor, passed away February 3, 2018 at his residence. He was born December 16, 1954 in Euclid.

Scott was a dedicated employee of Momentive in Willoughby for 46 years as a maintenance mechanic. In his free time he enjoyed hunting with his son and brother, NASCAR and football. He and his wife Michelle fulfilled their dreams of having a farm and spent endless hours there with their daughter Samantha, plowing the corn field with his son Jon and brother in law Joe, fishing and riding in their paddle boat. As long as the fridge in the barn was stocked with Keystone it was a good day. He was passionate about supporting charities for veterans. Everyone that was close to Scott was touched by his generous selfless ways. His greatest joy was his grandchildren. Whether it was a dance recital, baseball game or just playing games in the backyard they were the light of his life. As long as Scott was surrounded by family he had a smile on his face.

Survivors include his wife of 38 years, Michelle (Gressley); daughters Becky (Rick) Burns and Manthy Crow; son Jon Crow; grandchildren Bella and Declan; mother Doris Evans; sister Holly (Leslie) Smith; brother Russell (Marie) Crow; cousin Sue (Mark) Joseph; sister in law Denise Gressley; He was a loving cousin, uncle, great uncle and friend to many.

He was preceded in death by his father Jack Crow and cousin Kent Klawon.

“ I was a High School friend of Scott's brother Russ. Scott was a great guy who worked with my Mother at G.E. (next to Collingwood H.S) back in the 70's. Scott was in his early 20's and worked in a Dept. with 10-older women (all of them in their 50's) who adored him ! They loved to hear his wild stories and he was like a son to them. Scott used to drive to my house in Mayfield Hts. after each snow storm and plow the driveway for free.
My thoughts and prayers go out to his family.
With deepest condolences,
Chuck Watlington
