“ Dear Family of Scott,

Scott and I grew-up together, ever since 2nd grade at Lincoln school. Scott had just moved to Willoughby from Cleveland. I just heard about his death today, a year and a half later. I am truly sorry I could not pay my respects. The news has left me shocked. I spent my childhood playing baseball and tag football with Scott. I spent many nights sleeping over at his house after teen dances, South High football games and just hanging out. Scott's mom was like a second mom to me. I believe his sisters should remember me. I lost touch with him after high school. But he was always in my thoughts of growing up together. I last saw him some 40 years ago. While he was home on leave. I will never forget his white fancy shoes. Scott was always a good dresser. From his first job at Bill's Clothes, he was always looked good.

Scott was always encouraging me, he gave me extra confidence, no matter what. I will miss him. Just like I miss his mom. She was very dear to me.

I just can not write all the special memories I have of him and his family. Scott's sisters were very young at our times together. I hope they remember me.

I would like to say to Heather, Erin, and all Scott's love ones. I will always hold in my heart of hearts the memories of Scott, his mom and their love toward me.

May he rest in God's hands and love.

Good-bye my childhood friend. I will never have another friend like you.

Until we meet again.

Don Bixel
