“ My Dear Shawn: It's been 6 months tonight that you died. I know you were the best part of your Dad & I. Along with everyone else, my life changed on a dime, in ways even you couldn't have imagined. We are all still stunned, but muddling through, especially your kids. Blake, Bella & Bekah treasure your memory, the many activities you shared with them and your gifts to them. Zoey is quick to speak to me of you & tells me that she misses you. I frequently listen to the cd you passed along to me before your death. It's very telling, and from it I know you were a forgiving soul & wished the same for all of us survivors. I celebrate you and your short life & have learned so much in your death. Eternally grateful to have the unique memories of you, that only a mother can have. My love, Ma

“ My name is LaJuan Kennan and I would like to offer my condolences to the family of Chef Shawn Brozic. I had the pleasure of working with him at the Wyndham Hotel at the Playhouse Square 2006-2009. If it's wasn't for Chef Shawn believing in me. I don't know where I would have ended up doing with my life. He gave me a shot at becoming an excellent cook. Thank you Chef Shawn you will be terribly missed.

“ I am saddened to learn about Shawn's passing. He was a terrific fellow who came to my rescue while he was at the Wyndham Hotel. It was opening night of Mary Poppins at Playhouse Square. Due to a technical difficulty, the day was moving slowly. We either had to feed the cast and crew or go into overtime for 130 people. I ran to the Wyndham and found Shawn. And 90 minutes later we had a hot catered meal in the rehearsal hall. In addition to that Shawn delivered it.

What a wonderful man. My sympathy to Shawn's family and many friends.

Thanks Debbie. Shawn's passing is quite a shock. We'll have a week to process before the funeral, and prepare for a celebration. He was a great guy, with friends who have come in from out of state to meet Shawn's Dad & I. I love hearing of his passion for cuisine, and the good times he shared with friends. His memory will be cherished by so many.

“ There are no words to express the feeling that the loss of Shawn Brozic has brought to my heart. We started at the Wyndham Cleveland on the same day. (December 26, 2006) Over the years we found that we shared much in common and even lived on the same street in Painesville, Ohio although years apart. I would often put him on the spot during “site visits” with clients and ask him the history of some meal he had just prepared for us, ... “So Chef why do they call this forbidden rice?” and he would always have an eloquent detailed explanation that would wow our guest. Shawn was a true professional and I will miss him. To his family, may the God of all comfort bring you peace until dear Shawn is awoken from his sleep.

“ You are all in my thoughts and prayers and my heart breaks over this loss.

Shawn recommended the book "Jitterbug Perfume" to me many years ago while working together at the Wyndham. It is a book I will forever cherish and our many deep conversations about beets.

“ Shocked, and heartbroken. Although it has been many years since I have talked to Shawn, his passing has hit me hard. Shawn always had a smile, and he was a good friend. Truly my prayers are with you all. Sharon, I am so sorry. Betsy and kids, stay strong and hold onto Jesus. Kari, I never got to meet you and your daughter, but Shawn obviously loved you, and I pray God's comfort for you.
