

Stanley J. Hales

April 5, 1966 - November 15, 2023

With heavy hearts and profound sorrow, we announce the passing of Stanley J. Hales on November 15, 2023, a beloved husband, brother, friend, & colleague leaving a legacy of kindness, intellect, and unwavering warmth.

Born and raised in Cleveland, Ohio, Stanley attended The Ohio State University, earning a Ph.D. in Economics. His commitment to learning was not merely a professional pursuit but a passion he shared generously with those fortunate enough to know him. Stanley's infectious laugh was a testament to his joy in life, and his warm and welcoming spirit endeared him to everyone he encountered. Stanley lived his life as an adventure, and his intelligence, kindness, and genuine interest in others left an indelible mark on those he touched.

Family and friends are invited to celebrate Stanley's life at the Brunner Sanden Deitrick Funeral Home and Cremation Center, 8466 Mentor Ave., Mentor, OH 44060, on Monday, December 4, from 4:00 to 6:30 pm. As we gather to remember a life well-lived, let us find solace in the memories we shared with this remarkable man. A funeral service will begin at 6:30 pm., at the funeral home.

Stanley Hales will be dearly missed but fondly remembered for the laughter and smiles he brought into our lives and the warmth of his presence. May he rest in peace, surrounded by the love and gratitude of those fortunate enough to know him.

“ For many of us, Stan led the way for living energetically, seeking adventure, and having a great time. I have so many wonderful memories of our Vegas "mancations", charter in the BVI's, and lots of bike rides. Only Stan could have inspired me to peddle to work in SF in all weather conditions. I am so sorry to see his journey end so quickly. Hope to see him upstairs someday.

“ I am devastated at the loss of my dear friend Stan Hales. I had the fortune to meet Stan for the first time when I moved to Deloitte in Sydney, and we connected instantly due to our mutual passion for flying, aircraft etc and also his very warm, sincere, fun and adventurous personality. We had a memorable trip to Canberra together in January 2021 (during the COVID border closure era), and we had a blast exploring the museums, galleries, restaurants etc. My condolences to Lori and other members of his family. RIP my friend - you are probably up there flying at cruising altitude somewhere.

“ Stan brought a great energy and joie de vivre to the transfer pricing team in Australia. My favourite memories were the chats and laughs in various pubs in Sydney. In particular he and i had a great night checking out various bars on York Street in Sydney not long after he arrived - we had a few beers and a lot of fun. My condolences to Lori and the rest of Stan's family on his passing. Geoff Gill

“ Stan was so friendly and fun to chat with and I have had a lot of interesting conversations with him over drinks while he was in Australia. One thing that I will always remember about him is that he was always smiling and that was so good to see. Stan, you will be truly missed!

“ *Lori,
I remember the day you and Stan had us for dinner at your beautiful home . Stan rode into the drive on his bike with a big smile . Our time together with you two was truly a blessing . I pray for your memories to live in your heart Lori and know that Stan will always be looking over his beautiful wife .
Love you

“ One of our fondest memories of Stan was at the end of Stan and Lori’s first stint in Australia. Having sailed together at Manly Yacht Club for a year, we chartered a yacht in the Whitsunday’s and sailed around the Great Barrier Reef for a week. Stan, as well as being adventurous, was very inquisitive. As we snorkelled in the warm water with abundant brightly coloured fish nervously keeping an eye out for sharks, Stan boldly dived deep to prod and poke with his finger things that others would not touch with a stick.

Happy memories

“ I don't think I'll ever know a laugh as infectious as Stan's. What a gift to the world it was to hear him live so joyfully. I loved all of the trips we've been on together, the many sailing adventures in SF and how he always greeted me with "hey Max." Thank you universe, for the privilege of knowing Stan.
