“ I had the privilege of working with Susan for 3 years at Summit Academy in Painesville. She had a wonderful, nurturing manner with our young students and was always ready to step up to extra responsibilities. I am so sorry for your loss!

Dear Myra and Family,

My heart aches for you. I just found out of the untimely passing of your beloved Susan. The loss of a daughter and sister is always sad, but in the case of such a young person, it is doubly hard to bear. These words of deepest sympathy are sent to you with the hope that as time goes by, cherished memories will help bring you inner peace, and make Susan seem still very close to you.

With sympathy and prayers,
