“ No words can ever be said that will help ease the pain and sorrow with the loss of your parents...especially Mom. Your mom was a wonderful woman and mother and a great Mother In Law to my brother. She was his mom and even all of us kids mom with our own mother passing away so young 16 yrs ago. Such a bubbly happy always smiling woman, I've never ever seen her mad ever as long as I've known her. I don't really think I've seen any of the girls mad or angry always smiles on their faces. Just keep them smiles there girls! Mom would want it that way :) Let's share her life and not dwell on her death. Happy thoughts and memories she will live forever in all of our hearts. RIP Susie! Love ya all!

“ I have many memories of Susie since I am the baby sister. My greatest memories are seeing her devotion deep love for her husband Frank (the love of her life.) I also remember her gentleness and love in caring for our mother in her last days. She kept a close eye on her girls and they all gree in to fine young ladies . There are way to many memories. I would still be typing at this same time next year. I am thankful that GOD chose to make her my big sister. I love you Susie and I will always have you in my heart. Your sister, Jeanette
