“ Sorry I could not attend the mass. Sue and Stu were always in our lives. We always laughed when we saw each other because no matter how old I got I was always "Joey" to her! Great memories! Sue is home now, God Bless

“ did not know until today that Susan passed away. What a sincere lady and full of life even when things were tough in her life. She was very consoling to me when my husband passed away and enjoyed our conversations on the phone. May she rest in peace as she becomes the Angel she always was. God bless her family and friends during this difficult time.
