“ I remember my dad Earl Anderson coming home from coon hunting with Uncle Terry and he told us that while they were sitting out on a fallen tree listening to the dogs waiting for them to tree a raccoon my dad yawned and Uncle Terry stuck his dirty finger in his mouth. Another when we would go up to grandmas and see his truck outside we knew he was in there and was going to jump out at us and be laughing. We were scared but excited because he was always so happy and fun. He always had a smile for you when you seen him and it was a smile that went all the way to his eyes not just on his lips. I know I will miss calling him and hearing him on the other end of the phone. Praying for all the family

I remember when we were kids and played baseball for the 4th of July at Mom's. Terry would pick up the littler cousins and help them run the bases!
