“ I knew Thamer several years ago when our kids were young students in Scouts and attended Center Street School. Within 15 minutes of meeting one another we were laughing and all our visits were laughter-filled. She was so much fun!!! I adored her. I moved out of the neighborhood and we lost touch - each busy with work and family. But there was never a time when I drove through Mentor that I didn't think of Thamer & Vince and the kids. I have had such deep, fond memories of her and our rich conversations. I'm sorry to learn of her death. Her heart over-flowed with love for all of her family. My sympathy to all she leaves behind.
