“ We have such fond memories of visiting Terri and Tom throughout the years. Whenever in town we were always warmly welcomed with a great meal, playing a card game, or just getting caught up the latest. We always enjoyed Tom's humor (the way he chuckled), loved his gentle spirit, and enjoyed seeing the progress he made on resoring his Corvette.

We send our caring thoughts and prayers to the Masztak and Kasianides families and to all those who were close to Tom.
