“ We are saddened by the passing of Tom. He was a wonderful, cheerful neighbor and friend for many years. We often laughed at the coincidence that we were neighbors on Hidden Glen/Chapel Way and remained neighbors when we both moved to Stone Mill Drive. May your wonderful memories and love for Tom help you through your grief.

“ Tom was a very nice man and a consummate professional. He was easy to talk and friendly beyond belief. I knew both him and his wife Anna from my time working at Dillard's Department Stores. A fine couple they were.
Tom will be missed.
