“ Aunt Vida,
I've known you since birth. My brothers and I enjoyed coming over and playing sports with the boys. You took in my Dad and Mom for awhile.
I really admired your poetry and art you created. The Halloween figures , I remember well. As you grew older, though it was hard for you to get out of the chair, you still at times did your gardening with pride.
You were very fortunate to have your daughter Eloise to help , care for you, unconditionally.
We know you are with our family in a good place with our Heavenly Father.
We will all meet again in our time
Love, Chuckie, Karen
