“ Not sure where to start about this woman that for some reason gained the nickname "OLD HAG" From me. Even though she was as far as you could get from that. I guess it just made her laugh, what didn't make her laugh? It's funny the last time I saw her she yelled out to ME "HEY YA OLD HAG LOL"1st time ever I guess she wanted to leave me with that. I laughed my butt off and gave her the usual big old hug... You could always get an I Love You from this beautiful lady. You will truly be missed and I will love you forever.

“ I will forever be missing you, your my whole world. I'm so grateful that I had you for a Nanny. The best ever. From the time I was born you spoiled me rotten and all though I like to joke and say I was loved the most because I was her first grandchild (lol) I new she loved everyone of us and then some just the same. Rest Easy Nanny.... we shall meet again. 🥺💜

“ I have way too many memories of Nanny. We definitely had a lot of laughs. She always had something to say that made since. She made everyone who knew her feel loved and a part of the family. She could play 20 cards plus mine of bingo!!!! Lol. The bingo queen for sure!!! Haha. Her smile and laughter will always remain inside all of us. Love you Nanny and will see you again. Save me a spot!!!!

“ This hurts my heart. It feels like I lost another mom. Nanny was my mother in law for many years, the best anyone could ask for. Until her last day she still treated me like family and never once was anything but loving and kind to me. She was one of kind and I loved her very much. 💔
