“ What dear friends Walter and Marian were and their devotion to each other and their Lord was such an inspiration. My friendship with Marian goes back years to when we met in grade school and graduated together. We stayed in touch after graduation in a group we called “The Club.” I have such wonderful memories of all the fun and and also the serious concerns we all shared. Marian was always so upbeat and came up with answers to any problems showing so much wisdom. Then Walter came in to complete this picture. He was so good and kind - the consummate gentleman. My condolences to their family. They were so proud of them and loved them so much.

“ Walter and Marian started the memoir group at the Willoughby Senior Center. It was already in operation when I joined in 2006. The memoir group met each Tuesday at 10:AM, and it became an important part of my week, and that was true for many others. Walter and Marian never criticized our writing, and were always supportive of what we wrote. They encouraged us to write of our experiences in our own voices. Their own writing was wonderful, as was the story of their meeting as children, and dating from their early teen years. They were wonderful people. They will be greatly missed by all who knew them. I want to send my condolences to the Marshall family.

I'm very saddened by this news, I didn't know this. Walter and my dad were in the Marines together and remained friends with my mom until her passing in 2003. Walter and Marian were such wonderful people. I always looked forward to their beautiful Christmas letter. Rest In Peace with all the beautiful angels. 🙏❤️❤️😊😊

“ My condolences to the Marshall family. Walter and Marian were truly wonderful people. I remember when first starting out in my career, Marian was a true friend especially when I was struggling. I remember our many lunches and friendly chats, and oh, the Christmas cookies! God Bless them both.
