“ Werner's sweet & gracious personality, quiet spirit of ministry, sense of humor and lovely, frequently mischievous, smile will be sorely missed. As always, Fran; love you both!

“ The Olsons have many fond memories of a brother in Jesus Christ who did many little things to help the local church function in a way where everyone does their part in service to God. And for Werner, he helped create memories in the church by being our photographer. It was a little detail that could be overlooked, but he faithfully did it as a ministry to the church, and the families in the church. He also was a pleasant man who had a warm smile and was very generous to others. He will be sorely missed.

“ Fran,

Marrolyn and I didn't have the chance to know the two of you all that long, however, the 2 or three years we have known you has left many endearing memories and moments on us, plus the wonderful times spent together in our "connect group setting" studying and sharing the word of our Lord Christ Jesus. The times spent on the road with both of you going to and from the Cleveland clinic in Weston, FL for Werner's chemo treatments really gave us more time to get to know both of you more in depth, not to mention Werner's favorite steak dinners at Appleby's. Don and Werner had many exhilarating discussions about their common ties and interest in Werner's homeland of Germany.

All of this to say that our good and precious friend will be sorely missed, leaving a hole in our lives that cannot be plugged, although we know that our loss is Heaven's gain, where all believers will again unite.

The following is a favorite poem of mine that was printed sometime back in my Bible Study quarterly:

"I am standing on a seashore. A ship at my side spreads her white sails to the morning breeze and starts for the blue ocean. She is an object of beauty and strength, and I stand and watch her until at length she hangs like a speck of white cloud just where the sea and the sky come down to mingle with each other.

Then, someone at my side says, ' there ! She's gone '

Gone? Gone where? Gone from my sight - that is all.

She is just as large in mast and hull and spar as she was when she left my side, and just as able to bear her load of living freight to the place of destination.

Her diminished size is in me, not in her; and just at that moment when someone at my side says ' There ! She's gone ', there are other eyes watching her coming, and other voices ready to take up the glad shout, ' There she comes !'

And that is dying."

We love you Fran
