“ Bill will always be remembered for his amazing strength and perseverance. We always enjoyed the stories that he shared that always gave us an understanding of places and things that shaped his life and beliefs. He was always kind to us, which we have always been grateful for. He and Penny knew how to live a life many can admire and find inspiration in. God bless his family and comfort those who remember the many good things he will missed for.

“ Bill and penny, where our neighbors in Deberry Florida for a couple of years my husband Bill and I enjoy their company had a great time with him going out to dinner. I'm just meeting up With them in our one Patio or their patio. Pennies, Bill and My Bill great friends. I think they are two of our favorite neighbors. We have kept in touch since then we're so very sorry to hear Penny. You know we thought the world of you Guys Love you and let us know if there's anything we can do for you. We're so sorry.
