“ Thank you Rick, Lori and Gary for sharing your dad with us. Bill's dry wit was not lost on us. When we said, "How are you, Bill?" His response was "Nearly Perfect.....I'd be perfect if I wasn't so modest." He was an artist working with wood. He introduced us to Steam Punk. He shared his love for trains with generations of kids. A truly wonderful life. God's peace be with you.

“ Bill always welcomed us Reardons into his home and always made us feel welcomed. My dog, Petunia, especially loved Bill, and as everyone knows, dogs are the best judges of character. You'll be missed very much, Bill.

“ I was always impressed with how he welcomed us, Arlene's children, into his home and life. He brought mom from Ohio to Minnesota, driving all the way, to visit me. I will miss him answering the phone with a smile in his voice. You are missed Bill. Love ya.
