

William J. Hoffman Jr.

September 2, 1947 - January 7, 2025

William J. Hoffman, Jr., 77, of Concord Township, entered eternal rest on January 7th, 2025. Born September 2nd, 1947 in Shamokin, Pennsylvania, he grew up in Cleveland and Parma.

Bill graduated from Saint Casimir Elementary School, Parma High School, and John Carroll University. He served his country in Okinawa during the Vietnam War. Bill worked in purchasing at the former LTV Steel and at Middough Inc.

As a devoted father, he supported his children's interests. For his son, Bill, this included driving him every Saturday to bowling leagues and numerous tournaments in Ohio and Michigan. For his daughters, Allison and Anne Marie, he attended practices, games, and competitions for dance, cheerleading, and gymnastics.

Bill's hobbies included working on his cars, listening to music, watching movies, and reading. He was an avid Cleveland sports fan, attending many Browns, Indians, and Cavs games during the years with his family.

He loved his neighborhood, Concord Hills, where he resided for the past 45 years. He took great pride in his yard enjoying countless hours keeping everything neat and trim. He also had a natural ability to fix anything around the house.

Bill courageously battled cancer for 18 years. Special thanks to the many doctors and nurses at University Hospitals and Hospice of the Western Reserve.

Heartfelt thanks to his daughter, Anne Marie, for being his primary caregiver and advocate. Her devotion to taking care of his needs was immeasurable.

Forever remembered by his wife Karen (Kutcher) of 51 beautiful years; his son William (Emba), and daughters Allison (Jack and son, Connor) McNamara, and Anne Marie, and sister, Mary Ann Izzi.

Bill was preceded in death by his parents William and Stella; his brother Vincent; his sister Jistine, and his in-laws Edward and Ann Azman.

He was laid to rest at All Souls Cemetery on Monday, January 13th surrounded by his loving family in a private burial service.

Memorial contributions in William's name may be sent to University Hospitals Seidman Cancer Center, Attn: Institutional Relations & Development, P.O. Box 94554 Cleveland, OH 44101-4554 or to Hospice of the Western Reserve, P.O. Box 72101, Cleveland, OH 44192, donate online at www.hospicewr.org

Arrangements were entrusted to Brunner Sanden Deitrick Funeral Home and Cremation Center, 8466 Mentor Ave., Mentor, Ohio 44060.

“ My sincere condolences to Karen and the other family members. Bill was as straightforward and honest person as I have ever known. His behavior as a soldier on Okinawa from December 1970-February 1972 was exemplary and an inspiration to all who knew him.
