

William M. Louden

September 8, 1954 - November 21, 2016

William M. Louden, age 62, of Roaming Shores, formerly of Mentor, died Monday November 21, 2016 at Carrington Park, Ashtabula. He was born September 8, 1954.

Survivors are his brother Barry (Donna) Louden; aunt Loretta Truhan and nieces and nephews. Preceding Bill in death are his parents: Robert and Anna Louden and brothers: Robert & James Louden.

Bill was interested in aviation. He had been a private pilot and was a certified flight instructor and had an instrument instructor rating for several years.

Bill also had a hobby of restoring and driving early 1970's MG Midgets. He successfully met the challenges of keeping the temperamental antique vehicles on the road.

A graveside service will be 10:00 am Thursday December 1, 2016 in Mentor Cemetery, 6881 Hopkins Rd. Mentor, OH. Section 22.

Arrangements Entrusted to Brunner Sanden Deitrick Funeral Home & Cremation Center, 8466 Mentor Avenue, Mentor, OH. Offer condolences at www.brunners.com.

“ Bill was my youngest brother. I've lost all 3 of my brothers now and it seems such a strange feeling as we all grew up and shared 1 bedroom together for many years until we left to be on our own. We had many fun times together and laughter as you'd expect. I miss all of my brothers. I pray that they rest in peace in God's great love!
