“ There are certain people who pass through our world, who we have occasion to grow closer to. Bill Nobbe was one of those people. I met Bill on October 23, 1972, when I started my new position at T & B Foundry Co. in Cleveland, Ohio. I was instantly drawn to his warm and upbeat personality. Within a month of our meeting, I was invited to his home for dinner. There, I met June and their four sons, Bill, Rick, Scott and Jimmy (AKA Ernie). What a wonderful family!! For years I would drop by their home on Cole Plaza, many times unannounced, but always receiving a warm reception. Bill was just that kind of a man. Sometime in early 1974, I stopped at their home to introduce my girlfriend, Bonnie Moffitt, who later became my wife. Bill and June accepted her and treated her like a queen. For years I would drop by their home, sometimes to play basketball with the boys, sometimes just to talk. Their door was always open. We enjoyed many evenings with Bill & June, from the Frank Sinatra concert opening the Coliseum, dinners with them and friends from Buffalo, Cleveland Indians games at the company loge, Cleveland Browns games in Buffalo, and Cleveland Cavalier games during the Miracle of Richfield and later at the NBA All-Star Game 35th Anniversary dinner. Over the years they were like a second family to Bonnie & I, and both June and Bill were favorites of our two daughters, Tera & Colleen. We are blessed to have known Bill, June and their family for almost a half century, and will be forever grateful that we knew and were great friends with such a wonderful family man. Rest in peace, Bill Nobbe. With much love and appreciation from Jim, Bonnie and the girls. God bless you and the entire Nobbe family.
